

Compassionate:

Feels upset in response to the suffering of others and does something to stop it.

Reliable:

Will do what they say they will do.

Loyal:

There for friends even during tough situations.

Sincere:

Means what they say..

Gentle:

Doesn't hurt others on purpose.

Polite:

Has good manners – uses words like please, thank you, and you're welcome.

Encouraging:

Uses words or actions to help others do their best or try new things.

Peaceful:

Doesn't like to fight and avoids "drama":

Fair:

Follows rules and treats everyone equally.

Helpful:

Tries to solve, not cause problems.

Uses Polite Humor:

Doesn't laugh at others.

Trustworthy:

Able to keep secrets, keeps their word, and tells the truth.

Cooperative:

Works with others – not against them.

Able to Communicate:

Willing to talk and listens to others.

Forgiving:

Willing to let go of past hurts to help the relationship.

Thankful:

Appreciates what they have – including friendships.

Friendly:

Smiles and says nice things.

Shares Common Interests:

Enjoys the same activities as their friends.

Respects Belongings:

Takes good care of other people's things.

Positive:

Focuses on the good things.

Respects Personal Space:

Doesn't touch or crowd others.

Thinks Win-Win:

Tries to work out problems so everyone's needs are taken care of in the situation.

Respects Privacy:

Doesn't share secrets or personal information.

Considerate:

Puts other people's feelings before their own.

Empathetic:

Understands how people feel.

Honest:

Tells the truth.

Thoughtful:

Thinks about how others feel and does nice things or says nice words to make them feel better.

Includes Others:

Doesn't leave people out of activities on purpose.

Easygoing:

Doesn't get upset when they don't get what they want.

Generous:

Shares without wanting something in return.

Kind:

Says or does things that support other people.

Sympathetic:

Feels bad when other people are going through a tough time.

Supportive:

Says nice words when others are going through a challenging or difficult time..

Open-Minded

Willing to try new things.

Respectful:

Treats everyone as though they are valuable member of the community.

Pleasant:

Makes others feel good when they are around.